

“Festive Fall and the Fruits of Plymouth County” Tour

Cranberry Country is the start of a tour that offers an autumn you'll long remember. Travel the County in the shadow of Pilgrims and Native Wampanoag as you encounter the bounty the County offers. The following attractions are suitable for planning a quick getaway, daylong adventure or a full week in Plymouth County.

For more detail or a Plymouth County Group Tour Planner contact:

Paula Fisher, Marketing Manager
Plymouth County Convention & Visitors Bureau
170 Water Street
Plymouth, MA 02360
Tel. 508 747-0100 Toll Free 800 231-1620
Fax: 508 747-3118
Paula.Fisher@SeePlymouth.com
www.SeePlymouth.com

Edaville USA

7 Eda Avenue Route 58
South Carver, MA 02330
T 508 866-8190
swentworth@edaville.com
www.edaville.com

Touring Time: 1-2 hours

Take an authentic train ride, enjoy the antique equipment displays, and view a working cranberry plantation. Schedule includes fall foliage, cranberry harvest and Christmas Festival of Lights.

Flax Pond Cranberry Farms

Off Pond Street
Carver, MA 02330
T 508 866-3654
dot@flaxpondfarms.com
www.flaxpondfarms.com

Touring Time: 45 min. to 1 ½ hrs

An opportunity to view the dry harvesting of Cranberries in the fall. Visit a working cranberry screening house with antique equipment, artifacts and Cranberry-themed gift shop. Open Year Round for Groups.

Bettyann's Tours of Plymouth (Also offers step-on guide services)

PO Box 455
Manomet, MA 02345
T 508 224-6469
bettyanns.tours@verizon.net
www.bettyannstours.com

See all the hidden treasures America's Home Town has to offer, including tours to cranberry harvest sites, with Plymouth's best-known tour guide. Groups of up to 10 and step-on guide services available

Dead of Night Ghost Tours

Leaves from Plymouth Rock
T 508 866-5111 or 508 277-2371
deadofnighttour@aol.com
www.deadofnightghosttours.com/

Touring Time: 90 Minutes

Push aside the cobwebs and join us for spine-chilling adventure through Plymouth's oldest cemetery and haunted areas. Daytime history tour, walk the paths as our forefathers did and see Historic Plymouth.

Open Year Round

Jenney Grist Mill

6 Spring Lane
Plymouth, MA 02360
T 508 747-4544

info@jenneygristmill.org
www.jenneygristmill.org

Touring Time: ½ hour for guided tour and/or 1 hour walking tour (reservation necessary) (Also offers step-on guide services)

In 1636 John Jenney built a gristmill at the top of Town Brook, the beginnings of industry in New England. Step back in time with a costumed miller at this 17th-century living history museum; or learn little-known facts about Plymouth on a guided walking tour.

Mayflower II

State Pier, Water Street
Plymouth, MA 02360
Contact: Group Sales
T (508) 746-1622, Ext. 8367

jyoung@plimoth.com
www.plimoth.org

Touring Time: 1 hour

Mayflower II - a full-scale reproduction of the type of ship that brought the first colonists to Plymouth. Moored near Plymouth Rock, costumed interpreters and museum guides tell the story of the 1620 voyage and the history of the reproduction built in 1956.

National Monument to the Forefathers

Allerton Street
Plymouth, MA 02360
T 508 866-2850, Ext. 109
Touring Time: 15 min.-1/2 hour

Open: Year Round. Tours welcome.

Largest solid granite monument in the US. Very Impressive, Plymouth's "Statue of Liberty"

Pilgrim Hall Museum

75 Court Street, (Rte. 3A)
Plymouth, MA 02360
Contact: Group Sales, ext. 4
T 508 746-1620

amjyoung@comcast.net
www.pilgrimhall.org

Touring Time: 1 hour

Pilgrim Hall is the nation's oldest public museum. Displays include the most complete collection of authentic Pilgrim possessions, including original furniture and a rare example of 17th-century shipbuilding. Exhibitions change yearly

Plimoth Plantation

Warren Avenue, (Rte. 3A)
Plymouth, MA 02362
Contact: Group Sales
T 508 746-1622, Ext.8367

jyoung@plimoth.com
www.plimoth.org

Touring Time: 2-3 hours

Living history museum of 17th-century Plymouth Colony. Includes English Village, Hobbamock's (Native American) Homesite, Craft Center, and Nye Barn exhibiting rare-breed English farm animals. Visitor Center, indoor exhibit, museum shops, group tour menu and function facilities. For Thanksgiving week dining BOOK EARLY!

Plymouth Bay Winery

114 Water Street

Plymouth, MA 02360

T 508 746-2100

Offers free wine tasting of cranberry fruit wines and traditional red and white grape wines.

Plymouth Colony Winery

Pinewood Road (off Rte. 44)

Plymouth, MA 02360

Contact: Group Sales

T 508 747-3334

Touring Time: ½ hour

www.plymouthcolonywinery.com

Winery building is a renovated cranberry-screening house, surrounded by cranberry bogs.

Produces cranberry and cranberry blended wines and other wines from fruit and grapes. Free tasting. On-site retail sales. (No public restrooms)

Plymouth Winery

Village Landing Marketplace

170 Water Street

Plymouth, MA 02360

T 508 746-3532

Touring Time: ½ hour

Come enjoy samples of cranberry, grape, and a variety of fruit wines made by an award-winning wine maker. Knowledgeable staff and gift shop.

Plymouth Rock

Water Street

Plymouth, MA 02360

T 508 866-2850, Ext. 109

Traditional landing place of the Pilgrims. This American icon is nestled in the sand, under a turn-of-the-century portico, within the shadow cast by the masts of Mayflower II.

Open: Year round.

Cape Cod Canal Cruise by Hy-line (May through September)

Town Pier

Onset, MA 02558

T 508 295-3883

800 492-8082

hyl_mktg@cape.com

www.hy-linecruises.com

Enjoy the majestic Cape Cod Canal while a narrator points out the many sights unique to this waterway. Full snack bar and cocktails available.

Touring Time: 2 or 3 hours

Annual Corn Festival - Mid September

South Shore Natural Science Center, Norwell

Fun for the whole family as this important Native vegetable is given the recognition it deserves

T 781 659-2559 www.ssnsc.org

National Cranberry Harvest Festival October – Columbus Day Weekend

Edaville USA, Carver

See the colorful harvesting of cranberries from the comfort and nostalgic seats of a narrow gauge railway.

T 877 EDAVILLE www.edaville.com

Cranberry Harvest Celebration - Columbus Day Weekend

A.D. Makepeace, Wareham - Two Big Days for One Little Berry

T 508.322.4028 www.admakepeace.com

America's Hometown Thanksgiving Celebration - November 19-21, 2010

Downtown & Waterfront including a parade, Drum & Bugle Corps competitions and attractions galore

T 508 746-1818 www.usathanksgiving.com

Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 2010

Celebrate America's Holiday in America's Hometown when the Town of Plymouth comes alive with activity focusing on both Pilgrim history and Native American heritage and living in the 21st Century.

T 508 747-0100 www.SeePlymouth.com